

Health and Safety POLICY STATEMENT
(Our commitment to Safety and Health)

Acumen accepts the legal responsibilities as an employer to fulfil duties as documented by the Health and Safety at Work Act, 1974 and other relevant statutory provision. The Company believes the following points will help to fulfil its legal responsibilities:

- Health and Safety - The Highest Priority

The Board of Directors considers Health and Safety should not be compromised for other objectives within the company. Acumen gives the highest priority to preserving the Safety and Health of everyone working for us, our customers and any members of the public affected by our operations, and to respect the environment within which we operate. We are fully conscious of our responsibilities to control accidents, hazards and to, prevent and control pollution. Although some responsibilities are delegated, overall responsibility for delivery of this Policy rests with the Managing Director. Acumen will commit all necessary resources to achieve its commitment.

- The prevention of Injuries, Accidents and Occupational Illnesses

We believe that all injuries, accidents and occupational illnesses are preventable. As such, we expect each and every such incident to be reported including near misses so that they can be fully investigated and actions can be taken to prevent recurrence.

- Health and Safety Policy Compliance with Relevant Company Policies and the Law

Our H&S Policy will be implemented through the Acumen set of Management Procedures and Operating Instructions. In respect of this policy statement, Acumen Manual, H&S Policy, provides details of the responsibilities and arrangements for implementation of this policy statement. All of our standards and procedures are set to ensure compliance with the Law.

- Continuous Improvement & Commitment

The high standards required in all areas of Safety, Health and Environment call for continuous improvement and commitment by everybody.

- Auditing, Monitoring and Corrective Action

We are committed to auditing, monitoring and corrective action to ensure full compliance with the principles of the H&S Policy.

- Personal Responsibility

All who work for us have a personal responsibility to prevent harm to themselves, others, and the Environment. Safety, good Health and concern for the Environment are equally important away from work and will be encouraged.

- Review

This policy will be reviewed on a yearly basis by the MD and the Group HSEQ Manager. The policy will be reviewed more frequently depending upon investigations, legislation and new procedures.

We are individually and collectively committed to these principles and expect all who work in our Business to act in accordance with them.
